Criminal Investigations Division

Detectives / Tactical Response Unit / Community Policing

March / April 2019

The Forest Park Police Department's (FPPD) Criminal Investigation Division (CID) is led by Lt. Ken Gross. Three detectives are assigned to CID; Det. Jarlath Heveran, Det. Rob Bryant, and Det. Adam Stasinopoulos. Det. George Hickey reports to the Criminal Investigations Division and is assigned to work with a Drug Enforcement Administration (D.E.A.) Task Force. Det. Mike O'Connor is the police department's Community Policing / Crime Free Housing Officer. LaShan Riggins, the Forest Park Police Department's Evidence Custodian, is a member of CID and aside from her evidence custodian duties performs administrative duties for the investigators, and assists the desk clerks, parking, and records when needed. ProCare Crisis Care Worker, Elizabeth Budde, is outsourced to the Forest Park Police Department four days a week and is housed within the CID building located at 501 Desplaines Ave.

Police incident reports are reviewed by the investigations division every working day. Incidents that have victims wishing to sign a complaint against an offender are assigned to a detective for further review in an effort to develop an offender(s), conduct interviews, and gather evidence to effect an arrest and present a winnable case in criminal court. Some incidents are turned over to Elizabeth Budde should there seem to be a need for outreach from her organization, mainly reference mental health concerns. Other incidents, for example neighbor disputes or landlord tenant disputes, are forwarded to Det. Mike O'Connor so he could intervene and possibly mediate or offer eviction advice. Problem properties may be deemed a nuisance by Det. O'Connor should they meet the criteria.

Detectives rotating on call assignments weekly so a Forest Park Police Detective is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week should the need arise.

A notice was emailed to FPPD patrol officers reference a planned opening for a detective position. Officers Jesus Arroyo, Laura O'Donnell, Adam Stasinopoulos, and Lauren Trevarthen expressed interest in filling the detective role. Interviews were conducted on March 08, 2019. When completed, Ofc. Adam Stasinopoulos was felt to be the best fit for the job of detective.

Sgt. Nick Petrovic, after spending over sixteen years as a FPPD detective, was transferred to the patrol division's afternoon shift on March 28, 2019. Det. Adam Stasinopoulos moved into his new position as an investigator on March 28, 2019, replacing Sgt. Petrovic.

The detectives are members of the West Suburban Major Crimes Task Force (WESTAF) and are, at times, on call to assist member agencies should a homicide occur in a WESTAF jurisdiction. There were no callouts in March/April 2019.

Currently, the Forest Park PD is still a member agency in the multijurisdictional West Suburban Drug and Gang Enforcement Task Force (WEDGE).

There were 102 incidents assigned to investigators for follow-up in the March and April 2019 time period. This is up 17% in comparison to January and February 2019 when 87 cases were assigned. There were 10 more incidents assigned to the detective division in March/April 2019 than in the same two month span in 2018 when 92 cases were assigned. Of the 102 incidents assigned this period, 47 were assigned in March 2019 and 55 in April 2019. There were a total of 225 incidents cleared in March/April 2019.
